The train immediately ahead of Wilson's broke a rail in front of the station at Tacony, Pa., a few miles above Philadelphia. It passed over safely, having split out a piece of rail ten inches long where two rails were joined at about $80,000, and the Rhode island avenue property at about $40,000, although, because of the complications in the transaction, no actual purchase price oc ld be arrived at.

The lest step in the deal was the burchase by James J. Lampton, acting for the lests of the Cugie estate, of the Patray ania avenue property and also of an artment house on R street, between surteenth and Fifteenth streets, this beg one of a row of apartments by Harry Wardman in that block.

The next step in the transaction was affected when Henry H. Hazen, repre-

TALKS TO STRIKERS; CASTRO INVITED TO JAILED FOR SPEECH

Socialist Is Dragged From Rostrum By Police for Attempt to Address Workingmen.

PATERSON, N. J., Feb. 28.-When Wilson Killenbeck, of Orange, the Socialist candidate for governor of New dyers in their headquarters in Turn Hall yesterday, he was taken from the platform and arrested by Chief of Police Bimson and his men.

The arrest was in line with the antifree speech order of the chief, which he claims has the backing of Mayor McBride, that out-of-town labor leaders will not be allowed to address the strikers anywhere within the corporate limits of the city. A crowd of 2,000 strikers followed the officers and their prisoner to the station house, jeering and hooting the police. They were dispersed without serious The action of the police has aroused bitter feeling, and it is feared there will be serious trouble if the present atti-tude of the authorities is maintained.
